The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the delicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription would, in appreciation of the cure which dispelled their examinations and local treatments, there is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It cures, always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials. The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If it is sent by mail, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

TOM JOHNSON'S CONDITION.

Tom L. Johnson is in the hardest fight of his life. He is fighting to regain his lost health; he is fighting for his life.

For several years Johnson has been a sick man. His family and closest personal friends have known it, but the truth as to his physical condition has never gotten beyond this inner circle.

For several years he has dieted and been treated for diabetes. For months past he has told his friends that he had beaten diabetes and that he felt his return to full health and strength was a matter of a short time. Neither his appearance nor actions have corroborated his spoken optimism, however.

Throughout his last campaign he was under a physician's care. For weeks he lay under a New York undergoing the most heroic treatment. A week before the referendum on the Taylor ordinance he was back in Cleveland against the advice of his physicians.

And now, as a last resort, he has gone to Europe to seek the care of specialists.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets invariably bring relief to women suffering from chronic constipation, headache, biliousness, dizziness, salivations of the stomach and dyspepsia. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

GEN. PICKETT'S WIDOW.

Since the widow of General George E. Pickett announced that she intended to appear in vaudeville for the purpose of bringing the North and South closer together she has received many letters of approval. "I am going to give a twenty-five cent show," said Mrs. Pickett, "and I will tell of the fight between the Monitor and the Merrimac, because I saw it." Mrs. Pickett tells an interesting story of her meeting President Lincoln after the conflict. Mr. Lincoln visited her home in Richmond. He knew her husband, having been responsible for Pickett's admission to West Point.

"When I heard the caller ask for Geo. Pickett's wife," says Mrs. Pickett, "I came out with my baby son in my arms."

"I am George Pickett's wife," I said. "And I am Abraham Lincoln."

"The President said to me, 'I saw your husband, having been responsible for Pickett's admission to West Point.'"

"Seeing baby's outstretched arms, Mr. Lincoln took him, and little George opened his mouth and gave his father's friend a dewy, baby kiss, seeming to feel with the infant instinct the tie that binds."

As I took my baby back again, Mr. Lincoln said in that deep and sympathetic voice which was one of his greatest powers over the hearts of men: "Tell your father, theascal, that I forgive him for the sake of your mother's smile and your bright eyes."

Fifty years' experience of an Old Nurse Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for fifty years with ever-increasing success by millions of mothers and their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhoea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

HEARD GHOST

Fred Stolls, whose home is in the lower portion of Prince William county, was adjudged insane last week and committed to the county jail, at Manassas. Saturday evening he attempted suicide by butting his head against the iron bars of his cell. When remonstrated with by the jailer for his rash act, Stolls said he could not stand what people were saying about him, and that the ghost of Quinton Hutchinson was crying out against him for murder. About a year ago Quinton Hutchinson was accidentally killed in the pyrites mines near Dumfries, at which time Fred Stolls was superintendent of the mines. In the trial of the cause of Hutchinson's widow against the mining company for damages, the plaintiff's attorneys accused Stolls of causing Hutchinson's death, through carelessness. Ever since the trial Stolls has manifested an unbalanced mind and it is now supposed that the allegations made at the trial have preyed upon and destroyed his reason.

ENGLISH MAIDENS MOBBED.

The anti-American sentiment in Bogota, Colombia, continues to find expression in rioting. On Monday two English girls, who were mistaken for Americans, were mobbed and beaten. Subsequently President Ramon Gonzalez Valencia made an official call upon American Minister Northcott. Former Governor Uribe's house was again stoned by the rioters.

The State Department is without information as to recent happenings in Bogota and this fact has prompted the officials to remind Minister Northcott sharply by cable that the department expects to be kept informed concerning all matters of interest occurring in that capital. The assault on two English girls by a mob who believed them to be American is regarded in Washington as a serious matter. What was first believed to be a riotous demonstration directed entirely against the management of the American-owned Bogota City Railway has now come to be regarded by the State Department as more far-reaching, and it is thought that it probably includes all American residents in Bogota.

What action this government will take in the premises is still a matter of doubt, but there seems to be no question that the Colombian authorities will be brought to account for permitting the mob to stone the American Legation building and commit other acts of violence against Americans and American property.

The officials are awaiting with keenest interest the receipt of further news from Minister Northcott.

BITTER ATTACK ON CANNON.

A bitter personal attack upon Speaker Cannon was made in the House just before adjournment yesterday by Mr. Shackleford, democrat, of Missouri.

"I am not talking about Cannonism," shouted Mr. Shackleford, looking straight into the eyes of Speaker Cannon, who occupied a seat on the republican side, "I am talking about Cannon."

Mr. Prince, of Illinois, who was presiding during the consideration of the pension appropriation bill, rapped the Missouri member to order, whereupon Mr. Shackleford changed his language, saying: "I am talking about the gentleman from Illinois, the Hon. Joseph G. Cannon."

As Cannon had ended all his speeches by declaring that Carthage must be destroyed, Mr. Shackleford said, so for years he had been declaring that Cannonism must be destroyed if republicanism and representative government in America were to live.

"Come on, Murdock, let us fight it out on the principles that lie at the foundation of free government!" shouted Mr. Shackleford in tragic tones, gesticulating as though defying the powers he was opposing.

Mr. Shackleford cited instances of rulings of the speaker in refusing to recognize members.

Mr. Cannon rose in his place to make reply, but republicans near him urged him not to do so and he yielded.

At times Mr. Shackleford attempted to mimic the voice of the speaker in declaring that members were entitled to recognition. He insisted that the bill to pension members of state militia organizations that took part in the civil war on the side of the union would have been passed had it not been for the influence of Mr. Cannon in preventing its consideration on the floor of the House.

Spring 1910

In the largest and handsomest store south of New York devoted exclusively to Men's and Boys' Apparel.

The Parker Bridget & Co announcement carries with it something more than the mere information that spring head-to-foot apparel for Men and Boys has arrived.

So great has grown the confidence in the name, and so widespread the recognition of P. B. & Co as authorities on things pertaining to formal and informal attire, that wordy essays on superiority in style and quality would indeed be superfluous.

The more particular type of men have learned to expect of P. B. garments that air of distinction you see so prominently expressed in the Easter parade on Fifth avenue.

The price range commences at $12.00. We especially ask your inspection of "P. B." Club Models for spring.
